Alicia Bray is a partner in the firm's Greensboro, North Carolina office. Before joining the firm, Alicia worked for a Greensboro litigation firm for five years, where she concentrated on the defense of long-term care facilities, physicians, nurses, and hospitals. She also assisted in the defense of other professional liability claims, including those alleging accounting and legal malpractice. Alicia also defends traditional insurance defense matters, including premises liability and motor vehicle liability cases.

A native of nearby Danville, Virginia, Alicia graduated magna cum laude from Averett University in 2004 with a Bachelor's Degree in English and a minor in Psychology. Alicia received her Juris Doctor degree cum laude in 2011 from Elon University School of Law in Greensboro, NC. While in law school, Alicia was a member of the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot team, competing in New York, New York; Leuven, Belgium; and Vienna, Austria.
