Jack Burch, Christina Craddock and Tim Burson to Present Seminar Topics at Surety & Fidelity Seminar

By April 17, 2012

Jack Burch, Christina Craddock and Tim Burson will be among the featured speakers at the 23rd Annual Southern Surety & Fidelity Claims Conference, April 18-20, 2012 in Clearwater, Florida. Christina is presenting with Capitol Insurance Company's Ron Wills and is addressing fraud and misrepresentation and the impact of such on bond claims. Jack Burch is joined by Chubb & Sons Insurance Group's Christine Romeo and is discussing cutting edge strategies for bond claim professionals. Tim Burson and Liberty Mutual's Judith Bufler will be speaking about the effect of Statutes of Descent and Distribution on commercial probate bonds for administrators and personal representatives. The Southern Surety and Fidelity Claims Conference is an annual gathering of Surety Bond and Fidelity Claims Professionals and Attorneys from across the United States to discuss and review important developments and strategies used in responding to surety bond and fidelity insurance loss claims and issues.

Bovis, Kyle & Burch, LLC is a founding sponsor of the seminar. After 10 conferences in Atlanta--the conference now rotates annually between Charleston, SC, New Orleans, LA and Tampa-St. Petersburg-Clearwater, FL.
