

Resolving Disputes Through Guided Negotiations

Bovis Kyle Mediation is a division of Bovis, Kyle, Burch & Medlin, LLC. Grounded in 50 years of tradition, our attorneys focus on reaching optimum solutions for our clients as efficiently and cost-effectively as possible. With this goal in mind, our firm began offering mediation services in the 1980s, before the state of Georgia even began its mediation programs. Our experienced mediators serve clients in the Atlanta, Georgia area as well as throughout the nation and abroad.

Our Mediation Facilities

We maintain state-of-the-art mediation facilities at our Atlanta, Georgia law office. Our mediation center contains a dozen conference and caucus rooms that can accommodate four to 20 people and comfortably permit simultaneous multiple mediations. Built in 2008, our mediation center is designed specifically to promote successful negotiations. Extra soundproofing insulation ensures privacy. Our modern amenities are geared toward making the mediation process productive and beneficial.

Our lawyers also conduct mediation in other settings that are convenient to our clients. We offer discounted rates for travel time outside the Atlanta metropolitan area for multiple party mediations. We invite interested parties and lawyers to learn more about our mediation rates and calendar and to reach out to us with questions or to schedule a session.

Our Primary Mediation Services

Our firm's mediation division handles a variety of case types, which are facilitated by lawyers who have significant experience in specific legal areas such as:

- Commercial disputes
- Construction issues
- Contract disputes
- Family law
- Fidelity
- Surety
- Labor & employment disputes
- Personal injury
- Insurance coverage
- Local government
- Professional liability

- Products liability
- Workers' Compensation