

Wayne Tartline becomes registered to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office

By January 26, 2011

Bovis, Kyle & Burch, LLC announces that Wayne S. Tartline, associate, has become registered to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Tartline will continue expanding his practice to include all varieties of intellectual property services, including infringement litigation, advertising injury defense, patent prosecution and trademark and copyright protection and counseling.