

Bovis Kyle named newest member firm of USLAW representing the state of Georgia

By September 12, 2023

USLAW NETWORK welcomes the Atlanta-based law firm Bovis, Kyle, Burch & Medlin, LLC (Bovis Kyle) as its newest member firm representing the state of Georgia. For more than 50 years, Bovis Kyle has provided civil practice and business legal services throughout the state.

“We are thrilled to welcome the attorneys and legal professionals from Bovis Kyle to USLAW NETWORK,” said Amanda Pennington Ketchum, chair of USLAW NETWORK from Dysart Taylor in Kansas City, Missouri. “Bovis Kyle shares our same focus of being relationship-driven, client-focused and service-oriented in working with clients, and we look forward to introducing this important geographic legal resource to our members and clients and offering Bovis Kyle’s experience and knowledge when legal matters arise in Georgia.”

Bovis, Kyle, Burch & Medlin, LLC is a multi-practice firm with its main office in the growing Perimeter Center area, north of downtown Atlanta, Georgia. Additionally, the firm has an office in Cumming, Georgia.

“We are honored to announce our membership in USLAW,” said Greg Veal, Managing Partner, Bovis Kyle Burch & Medlin, LLC. “Joining this prestigious network of law firms is a significant milestone for our firm, and it reflects our commitment to providing exceptional legal counsel and tailored solutions to our clients no matter where they are located.

“This partnership allows us to expand our resources, knowledge, and expertise while fostering invaluable collaborations with so many other excellent professionals. We are excited about the opportunities this affiliation brings to further enhance USLAW’s capabilities in delivering top-notch legal services to clients across the country and around the world.”

Bovis Kyle attorneys appear in all state and federal courts in Georgia, the United States Supreme Court, the Court of Federal Claims, and numerous other courts on a continuing basis or pro hac vice. The firm concentrates primarily on civil litigation, insurance coverage and bad faith, transportation law and litigation, corporate law, employment law, family law, workers’ compensation, surety, fidelity, and construction law.
