By May 5, 2017

Attorney Marilyn Kapaun and Former Governor of Georgia Roy Barnes meet at the fundraiser for Atlanta Legal Aid to discuss the importance of giving back to the community. The Family Law division of Bovis, Kyle, Burch & Medlin, LLC supports both the Atlanta Volunteer Lawyer's Foundation and the DeKalb Volunteer Lawyer's Foundation and donates time to both. Governor Barnes commented that he remembers his contemporaries at the firm from his days of practicing law, that he remembers those from the firm who have gone on to join the judiciary, and that he simply remembers the firm with great fondness.
