Gregory Presmanes is the senior partner in Bovis, Kyle, Burch and Medlin's Workers' Compensation defense department. He has been practicing insurance defense law since 1973. Although he has defended all types of general liability claims, he has focused for many years on the defense of workers' compensation claims. Aside from litigation, his practice has included a large number of mediations.

In January 2020, Greg stepped down from head of the Workers' Compensation Department to focus on his mediation practice. He has been trained at Pepperdine University Law School in Alternative Dispute Resolution. He has served both as an advocate and as a mediator of both liability and workers' compensation cases.

He is a frequent speaker at continuing legal education seminars throughout the State of Georgia and across the country. His numerous articles on continuing legal education topics, which he has taught at such seminars, have been published by the American Bar Association, Georgia Institute for Continuing Legal Education, and the Atlanta and Georgia Bar Associations. He also teaches seminars and workshops on claims handling and legal issues for the employer, insurer and third party administrator.

Interested in environmental issues, he has served as Chairman of the Board of Directors for GreenLaw (formerly the Georgia Center for Law in the Public Interest) and served on their advisory board. His memberships include: State Bar of Georgia, Atlanta Bar Association (Board of Directors), Georgia Defense Lawyers Association, Atlanta Claims Association (Chairman- Workers' Compensation Section), American Bar Association. Since 2004, Greg has been named by Atlanta Magazine and his peers as one of Georgia's Super Lawyers, putting him in the top 5% of lawyers in Georgia. He was selected as one of Georgia's Top 100 attorney's in 2014. He is a fellow in the College of Workers' Compensation Lawyers and serves on its Board of Governors. He is a member of the Board of Directors for the Atlanta Bar Association and has served as chairman of The Atlanta
