

Representation for a Variety of Insurance Coverage Cases

For years a significant part of our insurance practice has related to handling property insurance claims, especially cases with arson and fraud defenses. We regularly provide professional, cost-effective representation on a wide range of insurance coverage disputes.

Our team has extensive experience with a broad range of both primary and excess insurance policies including:

- First-party property policies
- Commercial general liability policies
- Professional liability policies
- Automobile policies
- Homeowner's policies
- Various types of manuscript and program policies
- Builder's risk, inland-marine, boiler and machinery policies
- Alternative risk transfer agreements

Our attorneys are experienced in handling bad faith and extra-contractual claims. Bovis, Kyle, Burch & Medlin, LLC has long-standing relationships with cause and origin experts, forensic accountants, and other technical experts in the local Georgia area, and from time to time, our attorneys are called on to consult about drafting policy provisions.

Another significant part of the firm's insurance practice is evaluating coverage and duty to defend issues under liability policies. Our lawyers have extensive experience with construction-defect, personal and advertising injury, motor carrier, uninsured motorist, and environmental coverage issues. They have litigated numerous declaratory judgment actions and defended allegations of breach of contract, involving coverage issues.

Providing advice and direction to liability carriers regarding how to handle lawsuits with uncovered claims is an area of expertise for Bovis, Kyle, Burch & Medlin, LLC. Our insurance coverage team—Steve Kyle, Jimmy Singer and David Russell Smith—have litigated hundreds of coverage cases across the southeast and have tried several multimillion dollar cases.
