Kim M. Jackson To Moderate Civil Court Judicial Forum

By  August 13, 2016

at the October 28, 2016 Civil Court Judicial Forum: Advanced Discovery and Trial Practice, an NBI CLE conference. The all-day seminar includes a panel of six State Court Judges from the metro Atlanta area. This panel will discuss a number of trial and litigation related subjects, including developments in evidence law, handling spoiliation of evidence issues, the effective use of Daubert motions, preserving errors for appellate review, and tips and issues that arise in the various stages of trial. Gain practical advice for likely scenarios, uncover specific judges' opinions and preferences, and prevent common mistakes. Find out what judges think attorneys need to keep in mind in this candid discussion.

The program will take place at the Holiday Inn-Perimeter, 4386 Chamblee Dunwoody Road in Atlanta, Georgia from 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The CLE is worth 6 hours of general CLE credit. One may sign up for this seminar here - register today!
