

Patrick S. Reames

Associate

Phone: (678) 338-3970

E-Mail: preames@boviskyle.com

Office Location: Atlanta

Patrick joined Bovis, Kyle, Burch and Medlin, LLC in 2020 as a member of the firm's general litigation group. His practice focus is primarily in the areas of insurance defense and coverage litigation.

Prior to joining the firm, Patrick worked for another Atlanta area defense firm and clerked for a Georgia State Court Judge. His experience includes handling cases involving: coverage disputes, premises liability, auto, trucking, construction defect, and contractual disputes. Patrick's focus is to provide our clients with the best possible outcome and legal advice in a professional and creative manner.

Patrick graduated cum laude from Georgia Southern University in 2015 with a degree in Economics. He was the recipient of the Excellence in Economics award and studied economic development abroad, in India. Patrick attended Georgia State College of Law having received the GSU Academic Foundation Scholarship. He received the CALI award in property and graduated in 2018. Patrick is a member of the Georgia Bar and and the Georgia Defense Lawyers Association.

Outside of work, Patrick enjoys hiking, reading, and traveling. He is an avid student of history and economics.

Representative Cases

- Henry v. Griffin Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram, 2022 WL 290610 (Ga. App. 2022).

PRACTICE AREAS:

- Litigation
- Premises Liability
- Insurance Coverage
- Insurance Defense
- Transportation
- Civil Rights Defense

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE:

- Georgia

EDUCATION:

- Georgia State University, J.D., 2018
- Georgia Southern University, B.B.A., Economics, 2015