

Bovis, Kyle, Burch & Medlin, LLC's litigators have a great deal of experience handling cases under the broad umbrella of premises liability. Bovis, Kyle, Burch & Medlin, LLC defends clients in third-party actions and also handles claims against employers and insurers involving conditions in the workplace.

In the third-party claim arena, Bovis, Kyle, Burch & Medlin, LLC's attorneys have handled the entire spectrum of cases, including, but not limited to:

- Slips, trips and falls
- Misapplication of cleaning solutions or wax
- Contaminated food or beverages
- Cases involving alleged structural defects in buildings or parking lots
- Improper maintenance
- Inadequate security
- Injuries allegedly due to defective or inadequate lighting
- Claims of malicious prosecution or false arrest

These include not only the defense of suits filed, but also the investigation of claims prior to suit, the assistance in negotiating settlement where appropriate, and dealing with the media in sensitive public relations instances.

Bovis, Kyle, Burch & Medlin, LLC's attorneys frequently teach seminars to adjusters and in house claims handlers to help them more effectively investigate and evaluate these claims and to help familiarize claims persons with this constantly changing area of the law.

In addition, our attorneys are available to help property owners implement maintenance, cleaning and inspection procedures which may prevent injuries at their premises, and even if someone is injured, procedures which may enable an owner or occupant to prevail if a suit is brought against them.

You can reach an experienced premises liability lawyer by calling (770) 391-9100. Call today, or contact us online, for more information.